The FCC reissued this grant on November 2, 2007 with a modified grant note.

In its application for equipment authorization the Grantee represented that the subject equipment is marketed as a "Personal Locator Beacon". The Grantee, however, applied for approval of the equipment as a Family Radio Service device covered by Part 95B of the Commission's Rules (not as a Personal Locator Beacon covered by Part 95K of the Rules), and this Equipment Authorization is granted for the subject equipment for operation solely as a Family Radio Service device under Part 95B of the Commission's Rules.
